Neil Doherty, Managing Director

Penston Landing, Main Street, Macmerry, East Lothian, EH33 1QN

We are delighted to present Penston Landing in Macmerry, near Tranent. Situated in a peaceful village location, with fantastic road links to Edinburgh, this exciting new development offers a superb range of two, three and four bedroom homes in a family friendly environment.

Activities/Amenities

A great place to live, Macmerry is located just off the A1, east of Tranent and only 15 miles from Edinburgh City Centre. With the coastal towns of Prestonpans, Cockenzie and Port Seton to the north and rolling countryside to the south, the area also offers a wide range of local amenities on the doorstep, providing the best of all worlds.

The village has its own shop and post office, along with a family butcher and a pet shop. Local leisure facilities include Macmerry Bowling Green, Tranent Cricket Club and Foresters Park sports ground with its two floodlit training areas, a 3D pitch and a climbing wall. East Lothian's dedicated outdoor Sports Centre, Meadowmill, is just three miles from the development, offering fantastic sports facilities including a gym, a sports hall and numerous outdoor pitches.

For golfers, Royal Musselburgh Golf Club is less than five miles away at Prestonpans. The sixth oldest golf club in the world, this picturesque parkland course dates back to 1774 and boasts an 18 hole course, a 300 yard plus driving range, short game area and six hole short game course.

Education

Penston Landing is ideally located for families, with a choice of schools in the area. Macmerry Primary School is just an eight-minute walk from the development and there are also several primary schools in nearby Tranent, including Sanderson's Wynd, Windygoul and St Martins RC School. Ross High School in Tranent and Preston Lodge High School in Prestonpans provide secondary education for 11 to 18 year olds in the area.

Work/Transport

Macmerry is ideally situated for travelling into Edinburgh City Centre, whether for work or leisure. The nearby A1 provides a direct route into Scotland's stunning capital. Alternatively, Prestonpans train station, just 3.5 miles from the development, offers a fast and frequent rail service into Edinburgh Waverley Station in around 15 minutes. A regular bus service from Whiteloch Road in the village into Edinburgh in around 40 minutes is provided by East Coast Buses.

Shopping/Dining

Just over a mile from the development, Tranent's High Street is home to an array of independent shops, along with an Asda supermarket. The town also boasts a wide choice of cafes and restaurants, including the popular Brig Inn Bar and Grill and Giancarlo's Italian.

Larger shopping centres nearby include a new retail park an eight-minute drive away at Haddington. The fabulous Fort Kinnaird, with over 70 popular high street stores and a cinema complex, is just a 14 minute drive away on the outskirts of Edinburgh. Currently the second largest shopping complex in the UK, this enormous retail mall provides a fantastic shopping experience.

All the biggest brands and major retailers, along with many independent boutiques, can be found in Edinburgh City Centre along with an eclectic mix of bars, cafes and eateries. In the heart of the city, Princes Street is home to many of the well-known high street brands and The Royal Mile is the place to find traditional Scottish crafts, alongside some of Edinburgh's oldest taverns.
